Attorney General Jeff Landry Statement on Anniversary of Roe versus Wade

BATON ROUGE, LA - Today, Attorney General Jeff Landry released the following statement on the historic United States Supreme Court decision Roe v. Wade, which was decided 43 years ago today:

“Since Roe v. Wade, nearly fifty-eight million innocent lives have been tragically lost to abortion. As Attorney General of the nation’s most pro-life state, I am committed to enforcing our state’s pro-life laws and protecting the unborn and their mothers.”
